The International Dance Council - CID UNESCO

CID is the official umbrella organization for all forms of dance in all countries of the world.

CID represents the art of dance in general and is recognized by UNESCO, national and local governments, international organizations and institutions.

It is the worldwide forum bringing together international, national and local organizations, as well as select individuals active in dance. It is a non-governmental organization founded in 1973 within the UNESCO headquarters in Paris, where it is based.

Its members are the most prominent federations, associations, schools, companies and individuals in 150 countries.
